Personal Statement

Bradley likes to play football. He isn't very good at school, he has never really liked it or have been good at it. He wants to play professional football when he is older, but at the moment he cannot play because, he has a really bad knee injury and waiting to hear from the doctors if he can still play.

Background

Bradley has played football since he can remember but has only been playing competitively for three years now. However, he was tackled very badly 2 months ago and tore the ligaments in his left knee, and waiting for his physiotherapist to say if he is allowed to play again. He was very close to his dad, he always took him to training. They bonded over watching football games together. His dad died about 3 months ago, and finding this very hard to deal with, especially with everything going on.

Goals

- To ensure every child achieves set learning outcomes for each class
- To improve on her teaching skills so she can easily overcome any future challenges
- To try his best at his exams

Barriers

- His dad died a couple of months ago and finding it very hard to deal with
- He may not be able to play football competitively again.
- Doing his GCSE's at the moment
- Succumbs to peer pressure easily
