

Cultural Exchange Sessions

Starting
17th October

Want to explore different cultures?
FREE SESSIONS FOR STAFF AND STUDENTS!

The Cultural Exchange Sessions project was created by students, for students.

A chance to meet new friends, learn about different cultures, and improve your language skills!

If you're interested visit iglobal.blogs.lincoln.ac.uk for additional information, or email ces@lincoln.ac.uk

iglobal@lincoln.ac.uk

Cultural Exchange Sessions

Starting
17th October

Calling all Teachers

CULTURAL EXCHANGE TEACHERS GROUP IS NOW RECRUITING!

Are you fluent in Spanish, German, Japanese, Chinese (Mandarin), Italian, French, Polish, or Korean and want to gain some teaching experience?

Why not become a cultural exchange teacher? We offer:

A chance to gain teaching experience • Meet amazing people and make friends for life • Official volunteering hours to report • Improving language skills • A chance to enhance your CV

Positions available to staff or students, both home and international

No experience required. The only thing we want is you and your ideas! Cultural Exchange Sessions are informal language classes where people proudly represent the cultural variety on our campus. Sessions are open to staff members and students and it's absolutely FREE!

If you want to join our team or want to get more details please email: ces@lincoln.ac.uk

iGLOBAL@LINCOLN