

FROM EXECUTIVE PRODUCER OF FANTASTIC BEASTS, RICK SENAT...

An Illustrated History of Warner Bros

Part 1 - 11 December 4pm

Part 2 - 12 December 5pm

Both in SLB Lecture Theatre.

We welcome Visiting Professor Rick Senat, Executive Producer on FANTASTIC BEASTS, who will present two illustrated lectures covering the rise and success of Warner Bros from its inception to today.

With material straight from the WB archives be ready for some exclusive gems. Working directly with the likes of SIGOURNEY WEAVER, CHRISTOPHER REEVE, JACK NICHOLSON, STANLEY KUBRICK and JK ROWLING, Rick will also share his unique inside knowledge and experiences from the 25+ years at WB, rising to senior vice president of European Business affairs.

Lecture 1 – Tuesday 11 December: 4pm-6:30pm – Stephen Langton

Building lecture theatre (SLB 006) From Europe to America. From the Nickelodeon to Rin Tin Tin. Sound comes to the movies ... Bogart, Cagney, The Assembly line, Animation, Oscars, The War years, "Casablanca".

Lecture 2 – Wednesday 12 December: 5pm-7:30pm – Stephen Langton

Building lecture theatre (SLB 006) TV threatens the studios and the fight back. Censorship and the movies Kubrick, Harry Potter, the internet and beyond.

Free!! No registration needed- just turn up promptly

Point of contact DAZ SCALES dscales@lincoln.ac.uk