

1st RESEARCH DAY CONFERENCE OF THE BRITISH SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY VICTIMOLOGY WORKING GROUP

“FUTURE DIRECTIONS IN VICTIMOLOGY”

28th January 2015

Lincoln Law School

College of Social Science, University of Lincoln

David Chiddick Building

LLMC, Harvard Room

PROGRAMME

09:30: REGISTRATION (with tea & coffee)

10:00: WELCOME & INTRODUCTION – Pam Davies and Matthew Hall

10:10: KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Antony Pemberton (Tilberg Law School, INTERVICT) – Stories of injustice and justice: narrative as a paradigm in victimology

10:45 - Questions

11:00: SESSION 1

Jonathan Doak (Durham Law School) – The place of victimology in transitional justice

Tinneke Van Camp (School of Law, University of Sheffield) – Understanding victim participation in restorative justice – it is not just about the self but also about the other

Renée Kool (Montaigne Centre, Institute for Procedural Law of the University of Utrecht) – (The Dutch (procedural) pursuit of victim voice. Critical observations with regard to the introduction of the Dutch ‘adviesrecht’?)

Linda Asquith (School of Social Sciences, Nottingham Trent University) – What did you survive? The hierarchy of victims in genocide survivors testimony

12:00: Questions/discussion

12:15: LUNCH

13:00: SESSION 2 PANEL “Surviving Serious Victimization: narratives of trauma and recovery”

Nicola O’Leary and Simon Green (Centre for Criminology and Criminal Justice, University of Hull) - Exploring Victim Identities: Narratives of Trauma and Recovery

Nadia Wager (Department of Psychology, University of Bedfordshire) - What is a suitable means of evaluating restorative justice from a victim perspective?: Seeking more than just satisfaction.

Adam Calverley (Centre for Criminology and Criminal Justice, University of Hull) - Becoming a ‘victim’: potential insights from desistance research for our understanding of victim identity change and management over time

Nadia Wager (Department of Psychology, University of Bedfordshire) - Positive victimology and the power to reconceptualise those who have been offended against: An end to pathologising victimhood?

14:00: Questions/discussion

14:15: SESSION 3

Louise Ellison (School of Law, University of Leeds) – The Long Road to Equality: Access to Justice for Victims with Psychosocial Disabilities

Basia Spalek (Assist Trauma Care) – Understanding Victimization through the lens of Trauma: exploring implications for Victimology and Victim Services

Marian Duggan (School of Social Policy, Sociology and Social Research, University of Kent) – Managing the Marginalised: New Directions in UK Victim Policy

Hannah Bows (School of Applied Social Sciences, University of Durham) – Forgotten victims? Denying the uncomfortable - sexual violence against ‘older’ victims

15:15: Questions/discussion

15:30: TEA/COFFEE BREAK

16:00: SESSION 4

Matthew Jones (Department of Social Sciences and Languages , Northumbria University) – Victim-Centred Policing: Exploring Future Directions

Pamela Davies (Department of Social Sciences and Languages, Northumbria University) – Victimology A (Forever) Gendered Discipline?

Iain Brennan (Centre for Criminology and Criminal Justice, University of Hull) – What can 'big data' do for victimology?

16:45: Questions/discussion

17:00: FUTURE DIRECTIONS FOR THE BSC VICTIMS WORKING GROUP – forward thinking?

17:30: CLOSE – Pam Davies and Matthew Hall

After the conference we will be visiting a local restaurant for an informal conference dinner

---

TO REGISTER:

To register, please visit the University of Lincoln online shop at:

<http://store.lincoln.ac.uk/browse/product.asp?compid=1&modid=1&catid=289>

If you then click on the 'Read More' link at the bottom of the page you'll be taken to the registration section.

A £10 fee applies to non-speaking attendees, which is being used to finance the catering for the event.

LOCATION

The conference will take place in the Law School, which is located within the David Chiddick Building – Number 18 on the below campus map. Campus maps are also available at <http://lincoln.ac.uk/home/maps/>

The address is:

Lincoln Law School

University of Lincoln

Brayford Pool

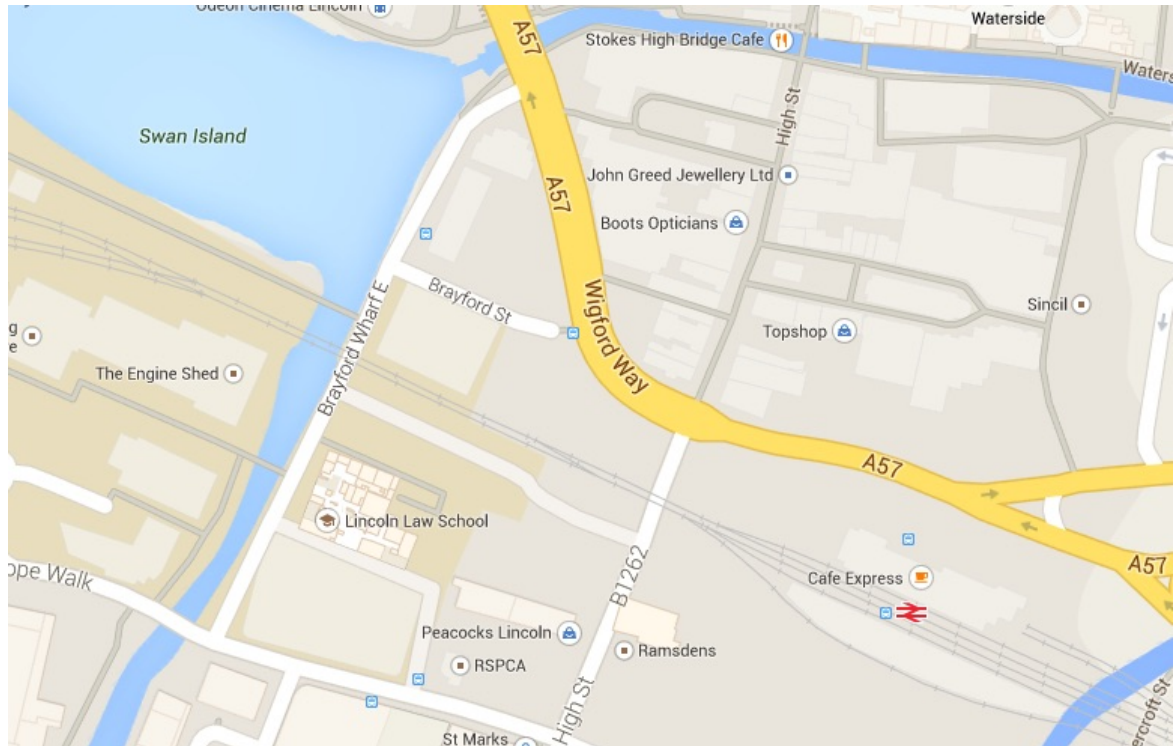

Lincoln

LN6 7TS

TRAVEL/ACCOMMODATION

The University and the Law School are a very short walk from the train station so we would suggest you travel here by train if at all possible. If you do need advice on car parking please contact Matthew Hall (mhall@lincoln.ac.uk)

If you are needing accommodation, there are several inexpensive Holiday Inns around the campus. The DoubleTree Hilton Hotel is very nice but a bit more expensive. <http://www.visitlincoln.com/stay> has further details of places to stay around the city.

FURTHER QUERIES

Please do contact Matthew Hall on mhall@lincoln.ac.uk with any further queries. We look forward to seeing you in Lincoln in January!