

MAKING DIGITAL HISTORY

The School of History and Heritage

Dr Antonella Liuzzo Scorpo and

Dr Jamie Wood

 @MakDigHist

Making Digital History is based on a number of technology-related teaching projects that were funded by the Higher Education Academy (and others) in 2012-14. A key aim of the projects which we developed, and which are now hosted on our website, was to make use of social media and Open Educational Resources to develop student-centred approaches to learning and to support staff in developing and disseminating their teaching.
