

Teacher instructions: Using a Class blog.

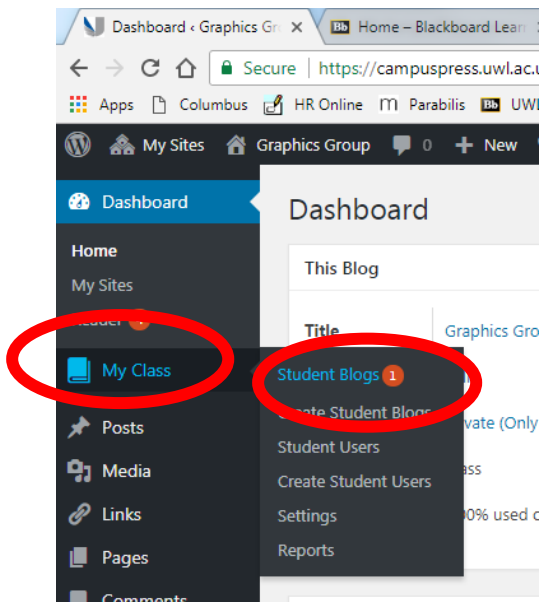

1. Go to your site:

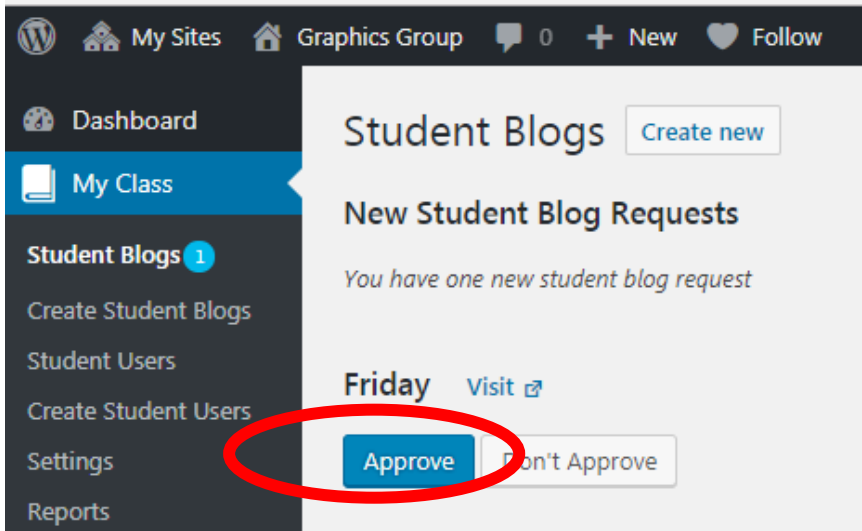

2. Go to Dashboard

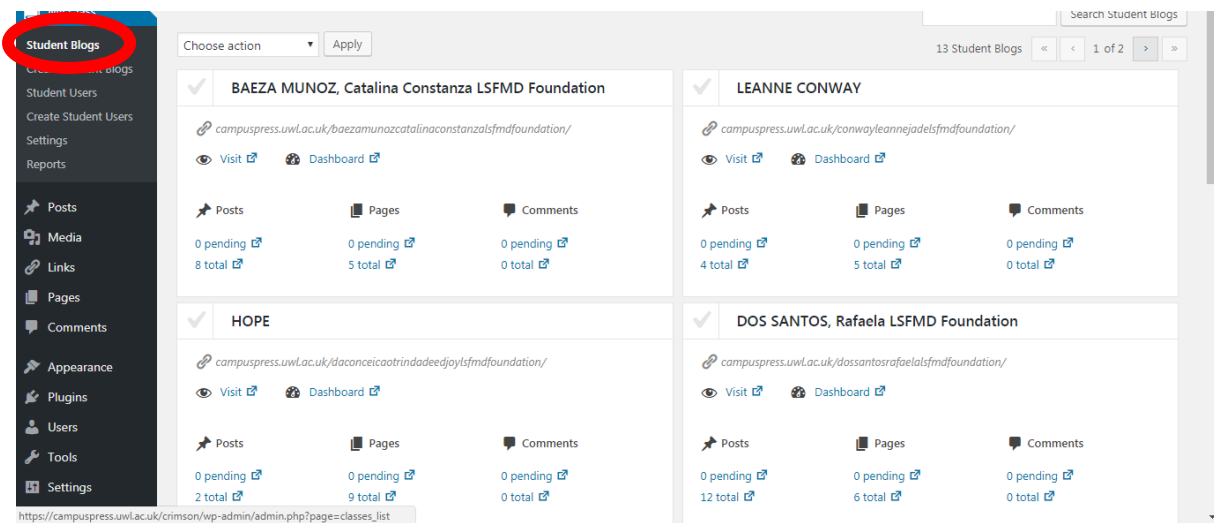

3. Go to 'My Class' and student blogs

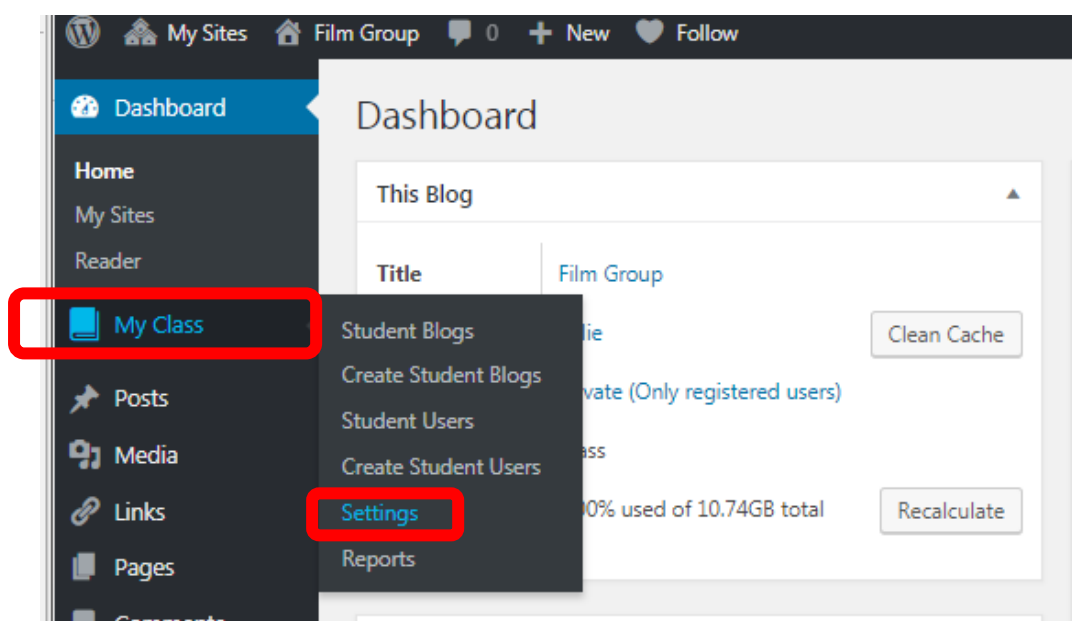

4. If any new join request come through, approve as appropriate:

5. Once all your students joined your class you can access them from the same area as above.

6. To ensure all the students blogs have been saved, go back into the class blog settings and click 'Save'.

Important: Also ensure that you are saved as a teacher on the classblog, otherwise you will not be able to view the students sites.
