Dear Parents and Carers

Head Teacher Appointment

I am delighted to inform you that Mrs Linda Clarkson has been appointed to the permanent post of Head Teacher at Burnbrae Primary School.

Mrs Clarkson is an extremely experienced Head Teacher. Her most recent post is Head Teacher at Barassie Primary School in Troon, South Ayrshire. She is also seconded part-time to the role of Quality Improvement Officer within the education department there.

She is very committed to involving learners fully in their educational experiences and in developing staff to achieve their full potential, as well as working closely with parents and the local community to strengthen links. She is very excited to start in post at Burnbrae as soon as possible, and to working in partnership with all of you to further drive forward improvements at the school, and in particular to support with the action plan created following the recent school inspection.

Mrs Clarkson will start in post at the start of the new term in August

I am sure you will join me in thanking Mrs Allison for all of the outstanding work she continues to do at Burnbrae in the meantime.

Yours sincerely

Nicola McDowell
Schools Group Manager
