

Schools play an important role in child protection. All schools have a Designated Member of staff for Child Protection who will co-ordinate the schools response to concerns for children and young people's safety and wellbeing.

The Designated Member of Staff for Child Protection for Cuiken Primary School is: Claire Bond – Head Teacher

The Deputy Designated Member of Staff for Child Protection is:

Kimberley Hughes – Depute Head Teacher or Karen Hancock – Principal Teacher

School staff help keep children and young people safe and well by:

- Helping them learn about personal safety
- Being a trusted adult who children and young people may turn to for help, and will take them seriously
- Identify when children and young people may need help
- Understanding the steps that must be taken when there are concerns for children's and young people's safety and well-being

Out with School Hours, Weekends and Public Holidays, Emergency Social Work service – Freephone: 0800 731 6969m or Police Scotland 101 or 999 in an emergency
