<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/zm3b87h>

Fasting during Ramadan is a requirement of 1 of the 5 Pillars of Islam. Before dawn breaks they must pray before 'Suhoor' (the pre-fast meal) This is an important meal as it must set them up for the rest of the day. What would you choose to eat and drink? (Consider foods which would give you energy) You can write this in your jotter or there is a document on Google Classroom.

Complete each activity on the grid - these can be completed in Green Jotter you were given.
