We hope you are enjoying your few days break from school .

Nursery News

1. We made very tasty pancakes in the nursery this week and then enjoyed eating them afterwards.
2. We continued to explore colour and created works of art for display

First Minister's Reading Challenge – Certificates awarded this week :

We will present these next Friday but rumour has it there are a few to present.

Don't forget to keep on reading over the holiday weekend and fill in those passports!

ParentPay

Is due to launch on Monday 19th February . You should have received a letter with your activation code. There was a slight hitch and a few parents will have to wait a few days to have their accounts set up. We have sent out letters to those who are involved. Staff received training at the Inservice Day so we are good to go. You can still pay cash as well if you haven't got an account set up.

Road Safety Competition – Seat Belt Safety

Our JRSOs sent home a letter about a competition they are running . Children can design a logo or slogan for a new campaign that focuses on Seat Belt Safety in buses. Entries can be any size up to A4 and can be hand-drawn or created digitally. They need to be in by Friday 23rd of February. There are awesome prizes to be won!

Speech and Language Research Project

We have been asked to participate in a research project to develop a new assessment for speech and language. Children from 3 years up to 8 years will have received a letter. If you are interested in supporting this project then please return the form to the school office. In return for taking part in this we will receive the assessment material free of charge to use in school. We hope that you will consider this opportunity.

P7 Leavers – Need a Piper!

We had a first meeting of the P7 Leavers committee this week and started to plan ahead for the end of the session. Thank you to everyone who came along. We had hoped to book a piper again for the last day of term. Unfortunately our piper from last year is fully booked! If anyone knows of a piper who would be willing to come into school on the 29th June at 11.30am please let me know so we can contact them.
