

University of Northampton

UNPAC - Take Two

Kate Swinton , Sam Thomas and Karin Johnstone

University of Northampton

Background

Design

Results

UoN

University of Northampton Plagiarism Avoidance Course

- Original UNPAC
- Increase in referrals for academic misconduct
- Revised UoN policy 2017

Design

- No one group of students more likely to be referred.
- Accessible to all level and stages
- Accessible anywhere in the world
- Rapid production

University of Northampton Plagiarism Avoidance Course

---

What is academic integrity?

5 of 4 mandatory elements completed.

What is academic misconduct?

3 of 4 mandatory elements completed.

How do I avoid academic misconduct?

Sources quiz

Which of the following is an example of good paraphrasing?

- a) Including a direct quote from someone in the middle of the paragraph, without using quotation marks, but referencing the source at the end of the paragraph
- b) Taking someone else's ideas and writing them in your own words, making it clear whose ideas you are referencing
- c) Taking someone else's ideas and using a thesaurus to change one or two words so that it is no longer a direct quote
- d) Writing direct quotes down as part of your notes and then using this source directly in your essay without referring to the author

1 of 1 correct

Results and Feedback

- 145 – registered students in first six months
- 39% scored over 76%
- “the units arrangement was really attention – grabbing and informative. The quizzes at the end were especially useful”

University of Northampton

Thank you for listening.

Any Questions?

UO
N